

Youth Art Month 2011-12 - "Art Shapes the World"

Schools throughout the U.S. are holding flag design competitions. Each state will select a design, which will be made into a flag and flown in Washington, DC during March which is celebrated as Youth Art Month. Entries should be in color, contain a theme that is representative of Indiana and art, and have the YAM logo included in the design. A.E.A.I. members send the best designs mounted on a foamboard to Bev Staub 17950 Grassy Branch Rd. Westfield, In 46074 by Oct. 20, 2011 or bring to convention. This year's contest will include students in elementary school grades K-6. Teachers attending the Art Education Association of Indiana convention will judge the flags. The art teacher with the winning design will be responsible for manufacturing the flag with our guidance. Let's design the best Indiana flag ever!
